

MOYE-SUNRISE NEWS

Friday night we had our program and Christmas tree. It was attended by a large crowd and everyone especially enjoyed the visit of Santa Claus. The tree was loaded with presents. Most everyone present received nice presents from Santa Claus and we hope he will be that good to all of us next Christmas.

Mr. Brock and Mr. Craig are hauling Mr. Brock's corn to Blacktower, loading a car for Lane & Sons of Clovis.

Mrs. Claud Dodson and children of Claud spent Christmas with Mr. Dodson's father in this community.

Rev. Sears of Clovis made us a good talk Sunday. Our Sunday school was very slim Sunday. We suppose most everyone was busy preparing Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hopper and family, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dodson and family took Christmas dinner at the Dodson home Sunday.

Mr. Will Hollingsworth and Lanelle Craig were calling at the Hall home in Clovis Sunday.

Who had the "blues" so bad Sunday?

Miss Jennie Roberts spent Tuesday night with Maggie Hopper.

AMBROSE IVY FOR TAX ASSESSOR

Ambrose Ivy this week announces as a candidate for the office of Tax assessor of Curry County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election. Mr. Ivy is known all over Curry County and has a host of friends. He served two terms in this same office, retiring four years ago, and is familiar with the duties of the position and should be elected will know just how to take hold of the work.

The Chamber of Commerce of Plainview has taken the right step by changing its name to "The Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture." This is as should be. There is no dividing line between the business interests of a town and the farmer. The farmer makes the town possible, and the business men of towns are only country fellows after all. Ninety percent of the business men of a town came from farms, and many return from towns to farm life. So the same ideals, the same interests, the same purpose is behind the farmer's life, and the town man's life. Their daily walk of

The New Year

THE year that has just closed means something different to most everybody. To some it has brought a great joy; to others a great sorrow; to many, both grief and gladness in full measure. Many of us have gone along the regular, uneventful path, filled with the happiness of love and work and the joy of everyday things, which, after all, is the best happiness.

To youth the New Year means a long, pleasure-filled evening and the writing of a new date on their letters. They look neither forward nor back. They make resolutions because it seems the correct thing to them to do. They keep them sometimes and it helps make them better men and women, but it is not a serious matter with them—just as is natural for youth.

Older folks involuntarily look back a bit on the even of a new year—not systematically, but with a general sweeping glance that usually makes them a bit uncomfortable at things left undone or failures to make good as they had intended. Maybe there has been just one thing accomplished that gives them a little warm feeling round their hearts—maybe not. The great sorrow or great joy stands out with more meaning to them than to youth. 'Tis another milestone passed.

The New Year may not present very bright prospects to some, but these same older folks know that there is something better in store than what the immediate future seems to offer—know that unhappy things can't last—that they are pretty sure to lead to something greater and better—know that even if they can't understand the reason for sorrow and trouble that there is a reason—know it deep down within themselves, though outwardly they resent and rebel against fate. It is not blind faith or optimism that teaches this, but reason and knowledge of life.

Older folks know that the year is bound to bring happiness and relief to those who are now bearing sorrow and trouble.—Mrs. J. E. Leslie, in the Detroit News.

BEACK NEW YEAR PUDDING

Ingredients: One cupful black molasses; one cupful thick sour milk; one dessertspoonful soda; beat well. Add one teaspoonful salt; one grated nutmeg; one-eighth pound citron, chopped fine; one-fourth pound suet, chopped fine; four dry figs, chopped fine; one dozen almonds, minced fine; one cupful seeded raisins; three raw tart apples, chopped coarsely; three cupfuls flour. Mix all together, steam in a buttered mold for three hours and dry for 15 minutes in an oven. Serve with any good pudding sauce. This will serve 15 persons.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved: To save my money.
And lead a frugal life.
Resolved: To do my duty.
And still abstain from self.
Resolved: To give up smoking.
And never touch a drop.
Resolved: To treat the good boys.
And not offend a girl.
Resolved: To quit complaining.
And make the most of my own.
Resolved: To overcome jealousy.
And be a good neighbor.
Resolved: To be the use of my strength in no cheap.
I've made more resolutions
Than any man could keep.

CENTER PIECE HINT.

To launder heavy embroidered round or oval center pieces, wash and starch quite stiff. While wet, divide into fourths or eighths, place paper on rug and pin to floor, as you would stretch curtains on a stretcher. When dry remove pins and you will have a center done up beautifully, without any ironing.

You Have Our Thanks

One of the most pleasant privileges of the year is extending to you our most sincere thanks and appreciation for your patronage during 1921. It is a pleasure to us to give public recognition of this fact and may the best in life be yours in 1922.
